

Laurita Fernández and Nicolás Cabré arrive in Mar del Plata

They'll be starring in the comedy Departamento de soltero (Bachelor Pad) introduced by producers Adrián Suar, Nacho Laviaguerre, and Diego Romay. Performances begin on Thursday, December 26th at Teatro América.

Editorial – Wednesday, November 27th, 2019

After seven successful months at the Lola Membrives Theater in Buenos Aires, starting on December 26th, Nicolás Cabré and Laurita Fernández will be performing at Mar del Plata's Teatro América their hit theatrical comedy Departamento de soltero (Bachelor Pad) co-produced by Adrián Suar, Nacho Laviaguerre, and Diego Romay.

The play is based on the well-known 1960 Hollywood film The Apartment which was released in Argentina as Piso de soltero. The movie was written and directed by Billy Wilder and it is considered "the best comedy of the 20th century movie history."

"Departamento de soltero is a romantic comedy that tackles with a great deal of humor life's big issues through a character who gains the audience's deep affection from the moment the curtain goes up. Laughter, emotional attachment and love get on stage together with the actors who own the spectacle from the start," the producers explained.

The play follows Beto Fernández (Nicolás Cabré), a modest though at the same time ambitious employee of an insurance company, who occasionally offers his small apartment to his employers for love trysts hoping that his bosses will eventually help him improve his work status.

He will cross paths with Miss López (Laurita Fernández), the company's receptionist, who happens to be entangled in a doomed relationship as the manager's lover. Beto will risk his job to rescue her, and later on he will try to woo her by way of the nobility only found in true love through a series of funny entanglements.

The first performance is scheduled on Thursday, December 26th, at Teatro América, situated at the corner of Luro Ave. and Corrientes. The comedy will be performed from Tuesdays to Sundays.